Numb. 3313

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 9. to Thursday August 12. 1697.

Genoua, July 28. N. S.

ON the 22d Instant departed out of this Port 12 Spanish Galleys for Final, to take on Board 2000 Soldiers, and transport them to Catalonia, for reinforcing the Garison of Barcelona; and the Weather has been ever since very fair, and the Wind favourable for them.

Leghorne, July 29. On the 26th sailed hence the Degrave, Capt. William Young, for Smirna. We have an account from Messina, that Capt. Fuller in the Panther Privateer, was gone to Sea again with his Prize the St. Andreas, to cruise; and that the Pope's and Maltese Galleys having joined at Augusta, proceeded together to the Levant.

Venice, Aug. 2. The last Advices from the Morea inform us, that the Venetian Fleet was sailed towards the Archipelago, having on board 14000 Soldiers; and General Steinau was left with 2000 Horse, and as many Foot, in the Morea, to defend that Country against the Enemies Excursions, and particularly to secure the Pass of Corinth. The French have made great Complaints at the Court of Rome, against the Nuncio in Poland, for opposing the Prince of Conti's Election, and they give out, that the Pope has disapproved his Proceedings in this Occasion; But this is not very probable, since 'tis writ by the Letters of the the 27th past, that the Pope has sent Orders to his said Nuncio to assist at the Elector of Saxony's Coronation.

Warsaw, Aug. 3. The Contest between the two Parties continues in the same height; But the French do not now so much insist on the Prince of Conti's Election, as they endeavour to invalidate the Elector of Saxony's, and to set up a third Person, being herein chiefly supported by the great Authority of the Primate, who looks upon his own Power and Dignity to be very much lessened, by the Bishop of Gujavia's declaring the Elector of Saxony's Election, and pretends, that by the Constitution of the Kingdom it belongs to him (the Primate) alone to proclaim the King, and sign the Instrument of his Election, as well as to Crown him; On the other hand the Saxon Party justifie themselves by the great Majority of the Gentry there is on their side, and by former Presidents; and are resolved to maintain what they have done; accordingly they sent Ambassadors to the new King, accompanied with 4000 Gentlemen on Horseback; who received them the 23d of the last month at Tarnowitz on the Frontiers of Silesia, Entertained them with great Magnificence, and conferred the Command of his own Forces upon the first of the said Ambassadors, who is named Jablonowski, the Son of the Crown General; after this the King entred into Poland with the Ambassadors, and a numerous Attendance; and came the 26th to a Place called Pekare, where he took the usual Oath, to observe the Pacta Conventa, and afterwards went to the Royal Castle about a quarter of a League from Cracow, where he intends to reside till the time of his Coronation. The Primate having sent out Summons for another General Dyet to meet here the 26th of August, the Provincial Dyets will assemble in few days to Choose and Instruct the Deputies they are to send thither; and we are told that the Elector of Saxony has writ to them in the Style of their King. There are Letters from Lithuania, which say, a great Body of the Czar of Moscovy's Forces, some make their number to be above 60000, were marching that way, to assist the Elector of Saxony, if there be occasion.

Vienna, Aug. 3. The Letters from the Imperial Army in Hungary of the 29th of the last month say, that after a march of several days, they encamped the 27th near Peter-Waradin; Prince Eugene of Savoy, viewed the day following the Fortifications of that Place, which he found in a very good condition, and sent out several Parties to get Intelligence, by whom as well as by other ways, he was informed that the G and Signior was arrived with the greatest part of his Forces near Belgrade, and had given Orders to lay a Bridge over the Danube, From whence 'tis conjectured, that he intends to move towards Transilvania, or at least to send Succors to the Hungarian Rebels, but as to the latter the time seems to be lost, for the Hungarians, who lately took up Arms have been defeated in several Rencounters with the Imperial Troops; Tockay and Potzike reduced, and many of them killed or taken, with their Principal Leaders, and the rest are dispersed, except a Party of 6 or 700 Horse, who they say are retired towards Temeswar. The Elector of Saxony's Minister at this Court, had Audience of the Emperor on Monday last, and acquainted him, that the King his Master was arrived at Cracow, having been received and conducted thither by a great number of Gentlemen.

Francfort, Aug. 11. The French Army, commanded by the Marechal de Choiseul, having consumed all the Forage about Fort-Louis and Lichtenau, marched higher up towards Strasbourg, and encamped the 2d of this month at Lings, about two Leagues from the Fort of Kiel, where they still continued according to our freshest Advice. Prince Lewis of Baden, with the Confederate Army, moves towards the Neckar; By last dast Letters they were encamped at Gunsburg; and there is a talk as if they intended to pass the Rhine at Manheim; Thô a Body of French Troops under the command of the Count de Melac, are posted on the other side the River, to hinder it.

Hamburgh, Aug. 12. The late arrival of some Swedish Troops at Wismar did at first allarm the Danes, but being only a Regiment of 1200 Men, to reinforce some of their Garisons, there is no more notice taken of it. 'Tis believed the Conferences will in a short time be set on foot again for adjusting the Differences between Denmark and Holstein.

Paris, Aug. 12. After a long expectation of News concerning Monsieur Du Pointy's Squadron, we received an Account two days ago by an Express from Brest, that one of